LCPS United Way Forms Due Feb. 12

LAS CRUCES – The 2010 LCPS United Way of Southwest New Mexico campaign, which began in late January, will end Friday, February 12,

2010. Completed

contribution and payroll deduction forms are due back to this year's LCPS campaign coordinator, Principal on Special Assignment Jamie Jones.

Jones said schools and offices can continue to collect cash in their United Way water jugs through the end of February.

Jones is located in the Special Education Department in the LCPS Administration Building, 505 S. Main St., Suite 249, Loretto Towne Centre.

“I would like to thank the schools for working so hard on the campaign, said Jones.

The 2008-09 LCPS United Way campaign raised $22,000. Since 2003, LCPS has raised more than $153,000 for United Way. For the second year in a row, Zia Middle School raised the most of any school -- $2,402 and kept the traveling trophy it won two years ago as the top fundraising school. Las Cruces High School was a close second. LCPS is the area's third largest contributor to the United Way of Southwest New Mexico campaign.

If schools or offices need additional pledge cards or collection jugs, they are asked to contact Jones at the email address listed below.
